

GENERAL UPDATE

Thursday, 17 December 2015 15:11

Hello Everyone in our Theatre Arts Department,

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas, and everyone is getting excited for holidays and of course – Santa himself! This is just a friendly reminder, that our last class before holidays is December 21, 2015 and classes will begin on January 4, 2016.

By now you have all received your roles in Annie and Seussical – Cinderella will be cast after the holidays. Now is the time to highlight and practice your lines. We are all excited to work hard on the show in the new year and bring these wonderful shows to life.

I wish you all happy holidays and a very Merry Christmas! Thank you for your support.
